

Bogliasco Foundation Awards Fall 2014 Fellowships

The Bogliasco Foundation is pleased to announce the 27 artists and scholars from 14 countries who will experience residencies at the Bogliasco Study Center in Italy this fall.

We would like to thank The Edward T. Cone Foundation and The Shakespeare Association of America for their crucial support, which has allowed us to award two Special Fellowships for fall 2014:

Paul Moravec

Edward T. Cone Bogliasco Fellow in Music Composition

Valerie Wayne

Shakespeare Association of America Bogliasco Fellow

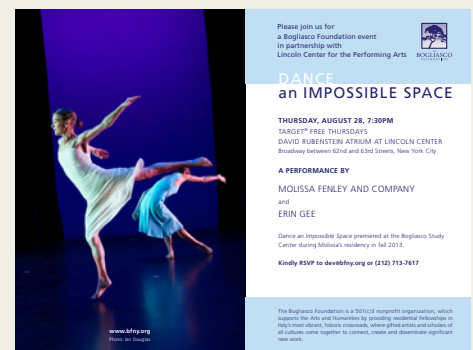

This year's fall Fellows will come to Bogliasco to think and create, far from the constraints of everyday life. They will receive full room and board in one of the most stirring places in the world, with the time, space and freedom to develop projects in all the disciplines of the humanities. In Bogliasco, Fellows

BOGLIASCO ANNOUNCEMENTS

Special Events

August 28: Lincoln Center

On Thursday, August 28, we invite you to join us for an event in partnership with Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts, featuring Bogliasco Fellow Molissa Fenley (BF '13). Click here to learn more. RSVP by August 14 to Kristin at dev@bfny.org.

October 20: Casa Italiana

Save the date of Monday, October 20, for Gerard Passannante's (BF '13) Leonardo: Disaster and the Invisible World, our third annual event in partnership with NYU's Casa Italiana Zerilli-Marimò. Click here to learn more.

Visit our Events Calendar to read more about recent Foundation events and those of our Alumni.

discover the creative potential of being the sole ambassador of their discipline in a diverse community of individuals whom they might not otherwise encounter in their daily lives. As communication patterns shift, perspectives broaden, new ideas emerge, and projects evolve in intriguing ways, often leading to enlightened collaborations. What begins as a personal journey becomes a transformative collective experience, fueled by the stimulating natural beauty of the Mediterranean landscape.

Click here to see the full list of fall Bogliasco Foundation Fellows.

Rentals

Don't forget that the Study Center is now available in the months of January and June for conferences, retreats, and other events. Click here to see our Rental Opportunities brochure and contact info@bfny.org for terms and conditions.